LGBT Rights in Howard and Carroll Counties

Join Today!

What is the LGBT Political Investment Caucus (PIC):

We are concerned citizens in Howard and Carroll counties who have joined together to fight for Lesbian and Gay civil marriage and LGBT equality.

Our goal: Caucus together and decide upon a strategy of individual contributions to candidates and organizations that are supportive of our LGBT issues and need real help to win during the November 2010 primaries and elections. We are rounding out our strategy of activism, advocacy, and visibility by tying in bundled financial support from like-minded individuals.

Individuals working together...we can effect change!

What we need:

We need a short term commitment from everyone in Howard and Carroll counties. Between now and November 2010, you will be setting aside your own funds that you will personally direct to the candidates and organizations of your choosing. 100% of your contributions will be used to support fair-minded candidates and organizations in our area. We need your input about who those candidates and organizations are and we need your money to make our collective voices heard.

How the Caucus Works: At least two Caucus meetings are planned. The first meeting will be a kickoff party to generate enthusiasm and further explain how it will all work. The final Caucus party will be a discussion meeting. After lively discussion you will decide which candidates you will support. Individuals will then make their financial contribution based on their pledged amount. Your individual checks will be bundled and sent together for maximum effect.

No contribution is too small. Every dollar you are able to invest helps to elect fair-minded candidates to represent our interests. This really is an investment in our collective future and every dollar helps.

100% of your contributions will be used to support fair-minded candidates.

What do I get in return:

We will provide you information about candidate positions and voting records to help you direct your funds based upon an informed decision. A decision you will make at the final Caucus meeting. We will also host the Caucus meetings that we promise will be fun parties full of lively discussion and LGBT empowerment through collective action. The perceived power of your individual contribution will be leveraged many times over. You will be part of changing the political and social climate for Maryland's LGBT community forever.

How can I help:

Please pledge your contribution today. Between now and November 2010, imagine the power of citizens just like you pledging just $10 a month. Working together, we are a powerful force for equality in Maryland. Do NOT send any money, just save it!

Legal notes:

The LGBT PIC is a simple promise; to set aside funds and act as individuals together. It is not a Political Action Committee (PAC). The PIC will never hold or control your money. You will always do that. All individual contributions are subject to Federal and State political contribution limits as described by law.
